Thank You and Goodbye

As I come to my final Sunday here, I find myself feeling a mixture of gratitude, sadness and excitement for what lies ahead.

It has been a real privilege to share in the life of this church, to worship with you, to learn from you, and the way you welcomed me and my family so warmly into your community. Thank you for your kindness, your encouragement, your patience and, most of all, for the many ways you have shared your lives and faith with me.

A curacy is a time of learning and growing, and I have learned so much during my time here. I will carry with me not only the experience and lessons of these years, but also many happy memories and the friendships I have made.

Saying goodbye is never easy, but I leave with a deep sense of thankfulness. I pray that God will continue to bless this church and all who worship and serve here.

Thank you for being such an important part of my journey. Please keep me in your prayers, as I will keep you in mine.

I look forward to seeing many of you on Sunday 1st November for a proper farewell!

With love and gratitude, and every blessing for the future. Sarah
