Vicar's update

Today we are marking safeguarding Sunday. I wonder what 'safeguarding' means to you? Maybe it feels a bit impersonal or bureaucratic, something we have to do because the national church tells us to. Or maybe it feels natural and normal because it is embedded in your professional environment. Maybe past experiences, or what you have heard about church, means that it really matters to you to know that the church has robust safeguarding practices and that you and other people will be safe.

When I was asked what safeguarding meant to me I said this, "Safeguarding is part of how we care for one another as a Christian community. I want St Margaret's to be a place where everyone can come through the door, knowing that they will be welcomed, listened to and treated with care and respect." I hope that is something we can all agree on.

I am very grateful to Natasha Hume, Hilary Belden and Mor Gartner for their wise leadership of safeguarding in the Parish. Please pray for them in their work.

If you would like to meet you can arrange that by emailing me at vicar@stmargaretsputney.org or messaging me on 07706 755018. These details also work if you have something you'd like me to pray for. God bless you in the week ahead, Susan.

For your prayers:

Daniel and Cara, Gordon Jones, Mette Marston, Cynthia, Julia Reece, Lee Roberts, Reg Norman, Dolly Beresford Jones, Joy Hansford

In memorial: Magdalena, Humphrey, Ann Peck, Mary Pretty
